YOU ARE INVITED

On September 25 and 26, 2024, we invite you to visit our booth during the Expo for Public Space at Jaarbeurs Utrecht: the biggest gathering place for everything about the design and management of public and semi-public spaces.

The future of our shared living environment is in the news every day. Sustainability, biodiversity, nature inclusivity, health, etc. The list is endless. For anyone professionally connected with the design, layout, maintenance, and/or management of public spaces, a visit to the Expo for Public Space is worthwhile.

All conceivable products and services for public and semi-public spaces are showcased on the exhibition floor. This allows you to quickly and easily discover relevant innovations.

During the fair, you can also attend high-quality lectures on various themes and issues, given by professionals from the field.

WHY VISIT

- Meet market players and colleagues
- Attend lectures by specialists
- Discover trends and innovations
- Enjoy free coffee, tea, and soft drinks
